Waterloo, Iowa 50701

GPS: N 42° 20.503',
W 92° 19.674', Elev. 961 ft.

Established in 1869

John G. Penne was the first to be buried here on January 9, 1869.

The cemetery location is eight miles from San Marnan Drive in Waterloo traveling south on Hwy 21 to East Eagle Road (D46), turn east for one mile (between Hammond Avenue and Hess Road).

The cemetery is behind the church on the north side of the road. It is approximately 3 ½ acres bordered on the north and west sides with tall pine trees and is well maintained by the church.

Each Lot contains (on the average) six graves starting at the southwest corner of the cemetery.
