PROM NITE

Last year's prom differed a little from previous years in that it was held at Franklin school. I'm sure that everyone enjoyed the "Enchanted Evening" and will remember the 1958 prom for many years to come.

BACK ROW, L.-R.: M. Wilhelm (Manager) R. Howard, S. Jones, B. D. Deal, E. Grady, J. Alsin, M. Smith, K. Mustafa, R. Carroll (Coach).

For the first time in history the Toreadorettes were one of the "Sweet Sixteen." To reach this goal the girls had to first defeat United Community, Rippey, and Ogden in the sectional and the fine teams of Perry, Jamacia, and Huxley in the district. Returning to Boone with their district trophy in hand the girls were met by a group of between 200-300 students and adults. This launched the "Historical Week." Monday morning the Chamber of Commerce honored the squad at a breakfast at the country club. Monday afternoon the students added to their all ready tremendous showing of school spirit and a giant pep assembly was held. The merchants of Boone joined in the spirit and signs of encouragement were written on their windows. Tuesday morning found the girls in the Veterans Auditorium practicing for the game against Twin Rivers. Wednesday the girls rested in their hotel rooms at the Fort Des Moines Hotel.

The excitement proved too much for the girls and after a close first half the Twin River Sextet edged out the Toreadorettes.

With the pressure off the girls enjoyed the remainder of the week resting, shopping, and attending the games. On Thursday morning all the "Sweet Sixteeners" were honored, at a breakfast in Younker's Tea Room.

Despite their loss it was a proud group of Boone people that welcomed the Toreadorettes home.

This 'n' That

Did you know that there was once a Moore Society in Boone? Its patron was the Hon. S. L. Moore. The club had its own song, regular meetings, held debates and programs. William Alsin was president and Adah Allen, vice-president. A certain Miss Heaps (?) was the life of the organization.

Source: Bumble 'B' October, 1915

That same year Panora defeated Boone 7-0 in football, but we held Madrid to a 0-0 tie.

Miss Phillips: "How large are your capillaries?"

Ray Lamb: "They are teeny, tiny." (This one we will leave un-answered, Mr. Lamb. Leave 25 cents in Room 308 before the next issue of the Bumble 'B' comes out.)

This plea appeared in the March issue of the 1915 'B': "Seniors, do something! Get called down in assembly or train-wrecked or anything—it would be an awful help."

The 1918 football team were awarded gold footballs by local businessmen in recognition of their enviable record.

In 1921 (May) the girls held a track meet of their own. Running in the rain, Frances Hanson came in second in the 50-yard dash. (The story doesn't say who came in first, ed.) Evelyn Carlson won first in the basketball throw.

? Question of the Week ?

This week's question was, "Avez vous faim?"—French for "Are you hungry?" When asked the French version of this question, the students of Boone Junior High gave varied answers:
Margaret Knudsen: "Oh, you poor kid!"
Steve Trulin: "Sure."
Linda Lainson: "Ditto."
Tom Curran: "Yes."
Sue Krascan: "Idem ad tu!" (She says it's Latin.)
Edward Myers: "I 'spose so."
Julie Alex: "Well, yeah."
Richard Payne: "You said it!"
Jean Beckwith: "Da!" (more Latin?)
Curran Bender: "Will you please restate that for the press?"
Cindy Moore: "Why, naturally!"
Joe Reedholm: "Alla time."
Darrell Richards: "Let's have a little kiss."

Four Student Congress representatives from Boone Junior High attended an all-day meeting held at the Iowa State College campus Monday, October 20.

Those representing Boone were Jim Stumbo, Sue Caldwell, D. Rosengreen, and Melinda Moore. While there, they heard panel discussions on conduct codes of schools. State officers of the Student Congress were also elected.

Sports Corner

The Boone eighth grade football team lost to Perry 27-13. Our ninth grade team defeated Perry 19-0. Joe Reedholm and Steve Trulin scored touchdowns. A pass from Reedholm to Steve Trulin scored the other touchdown.

Our eighth grade team defeated Nevada 20-12. John Bush starred for the winners.

The Boone ninth graders were defeated by Marshalltown 26-6.
