Rev. Clarence Weston, son of John Copeland Weston (1834-1921) and Caroline Frances (White) Weston (18-1921), born on July 5, 1872 in Clinton, Clinton Co., Iowa. Rev. Clarence Weston a direct descendant of immigrants John Weston (1628-1723) and Sarah (Fitch) Weston (1633-1698) of South Redding (Wakefield), both emigrating from England. (#3, pg. 742) Clarence's parents, John Copeland Weston and Caroline (aka Carrie) Frances White, a lineal descendant of immigrant Nicholas White, married on "January 14, 1870" per the Dedham Massachusetts Marriage Records. (#4)

Clarence's father, John Copeland Weston grew up on his father's Hancock Hillsborough Co., New Hampshire ranch. In 1851 John Copeland's life on his father's Hancock ranch ended and his future life dramatically changed when he embarked on a sailing venture around the world, per excerpts from historic authors' records. "Mr. Weston in early life developed a great desire to travel and to see something of the great world in which we live. September 5, 1851 he left Boston on the ship John Wade as a sailor before the mast, and returned August 5, 1852, having in that time sailed around the world." (#1) The following year John Copeland's mother, Mary, passed away on August 27, 1853. "In 1853 he went to California, remaining fifteen years in that state and Oregon." (#1) John Copeland was employed by mine operators in Northern California for the first couple of years before moving to Oregon in 1855 to participate in the gold mining properties in Sailor's Diggings, Waldo. While overseeing mines in Sailor's Diggings, John Copeland at the age of 26 married Jane "Jennie" Sibley (1843-1865) on June 23, 1860 at Waldo, Jefferson County, Oregon. Their marriage brought (3) three sons while in Waldo. Eugene Weston was born on April 17, 1861, George Ephraim was born on August 20, 1863 and Phillip Henry was born on January 31, 1865. Jane ("Jennie") Sibley passed away after Phillips birth from typhoid fever on February 14, 1865. Then shortly thereafter in 1865, their (2) two sons, George Ephraim and Phillip Weston, also passed away of typhoid fever, leaving their brother Eugene Weston. John Copeland became a single father with his (4) four year old son Eugene Weston. Two years after Jennie's death, in 1867 John Copeland and his son Eugene journeyed back to New England. When John Copeland couldn't find work in Hancock, he decided to go back to California, stopping first in Clinton, Iowa to visit his married older half sister, Harriet H. (Weston) Messer, shortly thereafter deciding to stay and settle in Clinton on October 27, 1868. Most likely Harriet's, husband Oliver Messer, was influential in John Copeland Weston's beginning his Clinton professional carrier as a "book keeper" for the Clinton Savings Bank and future professional positions of higher responsibility requiring a great deal of knowledge and trust in financial matters throughout his carrier.

Two years after arriving in Clinton, John Copeland married Caroline Frances White. (#4) Four children followed while living in Clinton; Lucian (1871-1955), Clarence (1872-1940), Alice Imogene (1873-1875), Mary Frances (1877-1964) and Leonard Fisher (1881-1944) Weston. Eugene Weston from his father's first marriage was also raised with the family in Clinton. The Clinton Iowa June 8th 1880 Census documents Clarence's father "John C.", mother "Frances", sister "Mary", his brothers "Eugene" and "Lucian", himself and their servant Ellen Brennan (from Ireland) lived at their home at 528-540 Tenth Avenue South, Clinton. Clarence's age was (7) seven at the time and attending school. Clarence's father's occupation was documented as a "book keeper". (#14) The Family was raised in their 528-540 Tenth Avenue South home pictured on the previous page. (The picture below is of Fifth Avenue in downtown Clinton in 1877)

It appears after completing school, Clarence most likely worked as an apprentice book keeper in the Clinton National Bank for his father, prior to relocating to Springfield Massachusetts since historical records latter document his occupation while in Springfield was a "book keeper". Did Clarence relocate to Springfield for a job opportunity or possibly meeting his future wife, our Weston family genealogy letter does not allude to his reasons. Since Springfield is a long distance East of Clinton, Clarence's mode of travel most likely would have been by train, which included a junction in Chicago Illinois over a one or two day trip.

After settling in Springfield, Clarence Weston married Ida Lucinda Clark on November 30, 1897, in Springfield. Per the Massachusetts Marriage Records 1841-1915, Clarence's place of birth was "Clinton IA", Ida's place of birth was "Waterbury CT" and Clarence's occupation was a "book keeper", Clarence and Ida were residents of Springfield at the time of their marriage and Ida's parent's names were, "David B. and Mary M. (Haven) Clark". (#16) Their first son, David Paul Weston was born on August 25, 1899 in Springfield. (1900 City of Springfield pictured to the left)

Within a year after the birth of their first son, the family relocated to Dorchester Massachusetts. Again, did Clarence relocate to Dorchester due to his existing banking occupation or for another job opportunity? Our Weston family genealogy letter does not allude to his reasons. Dorchester is just South of Boston on the Atlantic Coast and approximately 100 miles East of Springfield, the typical mode of travel would have been by train. Clarence's and Ida's second son, John C. Weston was born on May 12, 1901 in Dorchester Massachusetts.

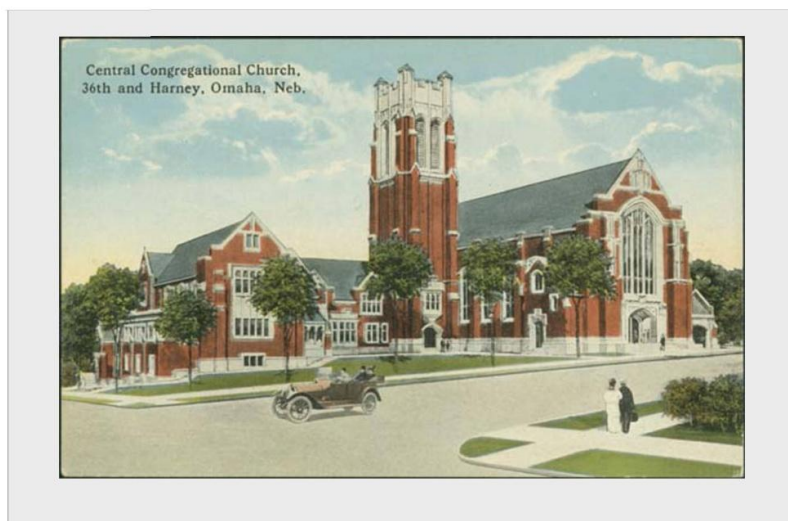

Clarence's and Ida's family returned to Clinton Iowa possibly early 1909, most likely again related to his employment in the institutions of banking or the lack of work in Dorchester Massachusetts. During this era there was a financial crisis known as the "Panic of 1907" that sent the New York Stock Exchange tumbling nearly 50 percent from its 1906 peak and spurred a string of runs on banks and trusts. The Clinton Iowa April 20, 1910 Census documents that Clarence and Ida and their (2) two sons, David Paul and John C. lived in a "rented home" in Clinton, Clarence's occupation as a "Book Keeper" in a "Bank" and that he was out of work for "10" weeks in "1909". (#14) It was recorded in a 1910 historical book of Clinton's history of John Copeland Weston's children.... "Clarence of the Northern Trust Company of Chicago". (#3)

Soon following, it's evident that Clarence relocated his family and went into the "ministry" sometime between 1911 and 1917 to rural Nebraska, since he officiated at his son's David Paul Weston wedding in 1918 in rural Nebraska. Their son David Paul Weston married Iva May Phillips on September 17, 1918 in Aurora, Hamilton County, Nebraska. The Nebraska Marriage Record documents that they were married by David Paul's father, "Rev. Clarence Weston". (#17) The town of Aurora is just West of Omaha.

The Island Grove Township Nebraska Jan. 14, 1920 Census documents "Clarence, Ida L." and "John C." (age 18) lived in a rented home. Also, it documents Clarence's occupation was a "minister" at a "country church" and his son, John C. age 18, was living with them. (#14) As noted above, approximately two years earlier Rev. Clarence Weston officiated at David Paul Weston's and Iva May Phillips' marriage.

Mid 1921 Rev. Clarence Weston's mother and father passed away; first his mother, Caroline Francis (White) Weston died on July 13, 1921, her obituary was recorded in "The Clinton Herald Saturday July 16, 1921 p. 6"; "Here for the service from out of the city were a son, Rev. Clarence Weston of Omaha; a grandson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Weston and two children (Caroline Frances and Copeland) of Council Bluffs; a daughter, Mrs. Edward Wenks (Mary (Weston)) of Des Moines, and her husband." His father, John Copeland Weston died just 2 weeks later on July 23, 1921 at the age of 87 in Clinton Iowa, his obituary was recorded in "The Clinton Herald Monday July 25, 1921 p. 8." Both parents were buried in Lot 4, Block 26 in the Clinton Springdale Cemetery. (#13)

Rev. Clarence's and Ida's son John C. Weston married Ruth Irene Emrich on June 15, 1926 in Kingsley, Iowa. Ruth was born on July 2, 1902 in Belle Plaine Iowa. Kingsley Iowa is approximately 115 miles North of Omaha, just East of Sioux City Iowa. More than likely with John C. Weston's father living relatively close in Omaha; he officiated at his son's wedding. Rev. Clarence and Ida relocated to Omaha as documented in the Omaha Nebraska April 9th 1930 Census documents that Clarence and Ida L. lived in a home they "owned" on 1623 Pinkney St. valued at "$4,000" and Clarence's occupation as a "Congregational minister". (#14) Rev. Clarence and Ida Weston continued living in Nebraska until at least 1935 as recorded in the 1940 Denver Census documenting that they resided in 1935 near Central City, Merrick Co., Nebraska. On February 25, 1933 Rev. Clarence's son, David Paul Weston married Velma Lucile Melvin (second wife) in Denver, Denver Co., Colorado. (#19) It's evident that David Paul's divorce from his first wife, Iva May (Phillips) Weston was probated between 1930 and 1932.

During this era the Great Depression of the 1930's affected the lives of everyone and surely that included Rev. Clarence and Ida Weston. The Great Depression originated in the United States with the stock market crash on October 29, 1929, known as "Black Tuesday", where the devastating economic effects continued throughout the world through the late 1930's. Every sector of the economies were hit; heavy industry, construction was virtually halted in many countries and rural America farming communities suffered as crop prices fell drastically. If the Great Depression catastrophe wasn't enough, beginning in the mid-1930s, a severe drought ravaged America's agricultural heartland, including Nebraska. (#18)

Between the years of 1935 and 1940 Rev. Clarence and Ida Weston relocated to Denver Colorado. During this time period their son, David Paul Weston, and his family and their granddaughter, Caroline Frances (Weston) Inman lived in Denver as documented in the Denver 1940 Census'. Their son, John C. Weston, and his family lived in a rented home in Kimball, Kimball Co., Nebraska, with two sons "John C. Jr." age 12 and Stanley E. age 7, John C. Weston's occupation was a "minister" as well and the family lived in Archer Nebraska in 1935, all as recorded in the Kimball Nebraska 1940 Census. (#14) Our Weston family history states Rev. Clarence Weston decided to retire in Denver due to his allergies since Denver had a dryer climate. The Denver April 10th 1940 Census documents that Clarence and Ida Weston lived at 3360 Lowell St., Denver, Denver Co., Colorado as a "lodger" in the home of Howard Collins and that Clarence was a "retired minister". (#14)

Rev. Clarence Weston died a short time following the 1940 Census at the age of 68 on December 27, 1940 in Denver, Colorado, which was published in the Denver Post on December 28, 1940. Rev. Clarence Weston's wife, Ida Lucinda (Clark) Weston, passed away 2 years later on February 19, 1942. Both were buried at the Crown Hill Cemetery, Wheat Ridge, Jefferson CO., Colorado. (#20)

Rev. Clarence Weston, not only left his "footprint" in Clinton Iowa and in rural Nebraska, but most importantly onto his descendants to this day throughout America.

NOTATIONS:

- a. Census Review Comments: Regarding the US Census records, there are many errors when the "hand written" Census' are transcribed into the "typed" records, requiring review of the original handwritten Census' and comparing to other collaborating records.
- b. Weston and Wesson are the same family. In Middle English WESTON is pronounced WESSON and was spelled WESFON (SF) being a double S. As the SF evolved it became ST.
- c. The Weston Family Genealogy Letter was passed down to Caroline Frances (Weston) (Inman) Robinson, which is a (4) page document that outlines (8) eight generations of the Weston family.
