

Editor Tamplin, of the Hull Index has been indicted for libeling Attorney Boies of Sheldon. The indictment was sought by Boies because of an alleged libelous article that appeared in the Index November 13th, and which said uncomplimentary things of the attorney in speaking of a controversy which Mr. Boies and G. W. Roth, a former partner, were having in settling up their partnership affairs.

Rock Rapids Reporter
Thursday - December 24, 1903

"Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Roth expect to get into their new residence the latter part of this week. Mr. Roth has remodeled the house so as to entirely change its interior arrangement, and has made a large number of other improvements."

Worthington Advance
June 14, 1907

"G.W. Roth left on Tuesday on a business trip to Breckenridge."

Worthington Advance
20 April 1906

Brewster. From the Tribune.

"G. W. Roth was up from Worthington Monday. He reports that the Sunday meetings are booming, and it is all he can do to keep off from the front seat."

Worthington Advance
December 28, 1906

"G. W. Roth has stored his household goods and he and Mrs. Roth expect to spend the winter in California."

Worthington Advance
Friday - December 7, 1906

"G. W. Roth returned Friday from a business trip to Chandler, Minn."

Worthington Advance
Friday - September 3, 1909