

"Mrs. G. W. Roth left Tuesday for Bennington, Wisconsin, where she will spend the holiday season with her parents."

Worthington Advance
Friday, December 18, 1908

"Messrs. E. V. Voak, G. W. Roth, F. L. Humiston, Wm. Schroeder and G. W. Patterson left Tuesday for Texas and points in the southwest."

Worthington Advance
Friday, December 18, 1908

"G.W. Roth last week bought the residence on 5th avenue that has been occupied by J.G. Mitchell for some time past."

Worthington Advance
5 April 1907

"While putting a screen on a second story window at his home one day this week Geo. W. Roth fell from a ladder and had a narrow escape from breaking his neck. He fortunately escaped with a badly bruised arm."

Worthington Advance
22 May 1908

"G.W. Roth spent Wednesday looking after his farms in Hersey township. He says he was surprised to see how well the ground was taking care of the abundant rainfall. He expected to find crops drowned out in spots, but did not find it so."

Worthington Advance
29 May 1908

"G.W. Roth left Monday on a business trip to Grant county. He will stop off at the twin cities on the return trip and visit the State fair."

Worthington Advance
4 September 1908