

Local Intelligence

"G.W. Roth went to Brewster Wednesday on business."

Worthington Advance

13 November 1908

"Mrs. Harvey Rew was hostess for the Euchre Club Wednesday afternoon. Twelve ladies were present and the prizes were carried off by Mrs. Dr. Manson and Mrs. G.W. Roth, winning first and second prizes respectively. Refreshments were served by the hostess and a general good time enjoyed by all the ladies present."

Worthington Advance

20 November 1908

"G.W. Roth went to Chicago last Sunday to spend a few days at the International Live Stock Exposition."
"

Worthington Advance

Friday, December 6, 1907

"Mrs. G.W. Roth was hostess for a six-table "military" euchre party on Monday afternoon, and those present were utterly unmindful of the blizzard which was raging outside in the enjoyment of the pastime. An elaborate luncheon was served and when it came time for departure all were loaded into busses and reached home without any serious inconvenience."

Worthington Advance

12 February 1909

"John Roth, of George , Ia. , was the guest of his brother, G.W., a couple of days the first of the week."

Worthington Advance

Friday, November 29, 1907

"Mrs. Ann Patterson of Burlington , Wis. is here on a visit to her daughters, Mrs. E V Voak, Mrs. S M Stewart and Mrs. G W Roth, and her son G W Patterson."

Worthington Advance

Friday, October 12, 1906