

OBITUARY

Henry Regenberg was born August 15, 1882 at Moline, Ill.
Died at Omaha Nebraska August 24, 1911 at the age of 29 years and 9 days.

He leaves to mourn one brother Herman and one sister Mrs. Mary Powers of Cadams, Nebraska, besides other relatives and a large number of friends.

Henry Regenberg came to Matlock with his parents about eighteen years ago and has since resided. He Made scores of friends during his residence there, about a year ago he accepted a position with a bridge construction company and while in their employ near Sheldon clearing away a wreck about the middle of last January, the accident which cost him his life occurred, it seems that a spike maul in the hands of one of the employs off the handle and struck him over the heart, he at once put himself under the care of a doctor but didn't realize that he was badly hurt as he seemed to be recovering nicely from the effects of the blow, until last May when he became worse and was taken to St. Joseph's Hospital at Omaha where he remained until his death.

The funeral services were held at the Baptist Church in Matlock, Saturday afternoon. Rev. H. Wortman officiating and paying a beautiful tribute to the memory of the deceased, the casket was covered with the most beautiful floral offerings, at the close of the services an unusual long procession followed the funeral car to the silent city where the remains were laid to rest by the side of his mother and younger brother.

CARD OF THANKS

To the dear friends and neighbors of Matlock and vicinity who so kindly assisted us in life's greatest trial, and for the many beautiful flowers, we tender our sincere thanks.
Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Powers, Herman Regenberg

OBITUARY

Henry Regenberg was born August 15, 1882 at Moline, Ill. Died at Omaha Nebraska, August 24, 1911 at the age of 29 years and 9 days.
He leaves to mourn his loss one brother Herman and one sister Mrs. Mary Powers of Cadams, Nebraska, besides other relatives and a large number of friends.

Henry Regenberg came to Matlock with his parents about eighteen years ago and has since resided. He Made scores of friends during his residence there, about a year ago he accepted a position with a bridge construction company and while in their employ near Sheldon clearing away a wreck about the middle of last January, the accident which cost him his life occurred, it seems that a spike maul in the hands of one of the employs off the handle and struck him over the heart, he at once put himself under the care of a doctor but didn't realize that he was badly hurt as he seemed to be recovering nicely from the effects of the blow, until last May when he became worse and was taken to St. Joseph's Hospital at Omaha where he remained until his death.

The funeral services were held at the Baptist church in Matlock, Saturday afternoon. Rev. H. Wortman officiating and paying a beautiful tribute to the memory of the deceased, the casket was covered with the most beautiful floral offerings, at the close of the services an unusual long procession followed the funeral car to the silent city where the remains were laid to rest by the side of his mother and younger brother.

-0-

CARD OF THANKS

To the dear friends and neighbors of Matlock and vicinity who so kindly assisted us in life's greatest trial, and for the many beautiful flowers we tender our sincere thanks.
Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Powers,
Herman Regenberg.