LAMFERS, TOBE – LUCY A. SCHMIDT

Tobe was the son of Behrend and Antje Popkes Lamfers and his mother and siblings came to the United States after his father had died. Tobe was born in the Netherlands and the family located at Freeport, Illinois, for a short period of time and then came to George.

He married Lucy, who was the daughter of William and Theresia Roth Schmidt.

Tobe was a mason contractor for 47 years and helped lay the brick for the George High School in 1921 and 1922. He plastered walls in many homes in George, as well as laid concrete sidewalks and driveways.

Tobe and Lucy attended the Evangelical Church and they had no children.
