

ANDERSEN, Rick (Pete)

Harlan Iowa Tribune

Rick (Pete) Andersen, 83¹. March 23, 1983

Rick Andersen was born Dec. 20, 1960 in Atlantic. He was baptized in the Brayton Lutheran church in Brayton and confirmed in St. John's Lutheran church in Audubon.

He married Karolyn Stockwell on Aug. 17, 1979. They have a three week old daughter and three year old son. He has been working for the Stockwell Construction Company of Exira and was presently working for Henningsen Construction of Atlantic. The family lived in rural route, Brayton. He died as the result of an automobile accident in Audubon county on Sunday, March 13, 1983.

He is survived by his wife, Karolyn Kay; his daughter, Ashley; his son, Christopher, his father, Richard Andersen of Brayton; his mother, Carol Jayne of Brayton; three brothers, Rex of Brayton, Jimmy of Exira, Richie of Kimballton, and two sisters, Peggy (Mrs Denny Juhl) of Exira and Sally Andersen of Brayton. Also surviving are three step sisters, Claudette Jayne and Julie Paulson of Brayton and Tammy Paulson of Atlantic. His stepfather is Claude Jayne and his stepmother is Margaret Andersen. Surviving also are a grandmother, Mrs Hans (Emma) Andersen of the Salem Lutheran Homes in Elk Horn and a grandfather, V.L. Swolley of Iowa City. Preceding him in death were his grandfather, Hans C. Andersen and grandmother, Cora Swolley.

Funeral services were held Tuesday, March 15, 1983 in the Brayton Lutheran church with Pastor Martin Reed officiating. Burial was in the St. John's Lutheran cemetery, Exira with Craig Lykke, Dave Dennis, Don Fredricksen, Brian Johnson, Jim Kellerman and Kim Black serving as casketbearers.