Accidental hanging kills Audubon man, 22

AUDUBON — Funeral services were June 1 here for Danny T. Christensen, a 22-year-old Audubon man who died some time May 29 as a result of accidental hanging, according to the Audubon county sheriff's department.

The incident took place in a warehouse near Grotelushen Implement Co., which is rented by John L. Hansen, stepfather of Christensen. The body was found around 1:45 p.m. by the stepfather and brothers.

Investigating were the Bureau of Criminal Investigation and County Sheriff Bill Shaw and his deputies. Results of an autopsy will be announced within the next few weeks.
