

Lars J. Christiansen, 88

Kimballton — Lars Jorgen Christiansen was born Jan. 8, 1889 in Denmark, son of Jens C. and Karen M. Olsen Christiansen. He was baptized and confirmed in Denmark. At the age of 21 he came to the U. S. On Oct. 15, 1919 he married Amalia Jeppesen. They lived in Audubon county, where he farmed and did masonry work. In 1947 they moved to Brush, Colo., and Amalia died there in 1949.

On July 30, 1958 Lars married Anges Fredricksen. They lived in Brush, Colo. Lars died Tuesday, Sept. 20, 1977 at the Eben Ezer Lutheran Home in Brush, Colo., at age 88 years.

He was preceded in death by his parents, and his first wife, Amalia. Survivors include his wife, Agnes, three daughters - Leona (Mrs Henry) Newman of Fritch, Tex., Elaine (Mrs Junior) Jensen of Gray, Frances (Mrs Henry) Kissler of Commerce City, Colo., three sons - Irwin of Fritch, Tex., Sidney of Gray and Dale of Rock Springs, Wyo., 27 grandchildren, 21 great grandchildren and one sister.

Funeral services were held Thursday, Sept. 22, 1977 at All Saints Chapel at the Eben Ezer Lutheran Home in Brush, Colo. Burial was in Immanuel Lutheran cemetery in Kimballton with Barry Christiansen, Gregory Christiansen, Don Robertsen, Lony Jensen, Kent Hansen and Zackary Wiges serving as pallbearers.
