

The Life Story of --

JOHN LOWELL CLARK, 71

John Lowell Clark, son of George Lewis and Margaret Burket Clark, was born on Nov. 27, 1902 in Dawson. He died at the St. Bernadine hospital in San Bernadino, Calif., on Aug. 30, 1974, at age 71 years, nine months and three days. On Oct. 28, 1928 he married Helen Marie Meisland in Irwin. Seven children were born to this union. Helen Clark died on June 14, 1959 in Shreveport, La. In 1960, Mr Clark moved to Norco, Calif., where he was employed in the motel management business. On April 10, 1965 he married Anna M. Theisen in Las Vegas, Nev. After their marriage, Mr and Mrs Clark made their home in Rialto, Calif., where Mr Clark recently retired as manager of the California 6 Motel Chain.

In addition to his first wife, he was preceded in death by one brother — Carl; and two sisters — Beulah Clark and Mrs Bernice Stofferson. He is survived by two daughters — Jackle (Mrs Lyle Norton) of Harlan and Janet (Mrs Robert Musich) of Everly; five sons — Lowell of Shreveport, La., Donald of Harlan, Gale of Lincoln, Nebr., Gary of Harlan, and James of Shreveport, La.; 24 grandchildren; one great granddaughter, by three sisters — Mrs Dora Shipp and Babe Jacobsen, both of Harlan and Mrs June Hull of Perry; nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held on,