

Denison fire kills one, injures two

1979

DENISON — Fire last Friday killed one resident at the Busch Apartment Building here and injured two others.

Robert Cline, 35, was declared dead at the scene at approximately 9:05 a.m. by Crawford County Medical Examiner Dr. Donald Soll. The cause of death was listed as smoke inhalation. His body was found in his third-story apartment.

Steven Blair, 19, and Tom Woodard, 25, were treated and released at the hospital for smoke inhalation.

The cause of the fire has not been determined, but was believed to have started in Blair's third-floor apartment.
