

Lyle Colbert, 43

Funeral services were held recently in Omaha for a 43-year-old Harlan man, Lyle Colbert, who died last week at Vets' Hospital in Milwaukee, Wis., from injuries sustained Dec. 24 in a one-car accident near Ayr, Nebr.

Colbert, a truck driver, had been hospitalized in Wisconsin since the accident.

According to informed sources, Colbert was a passenger in a car driven by Eelco Systge Boersman, 36, of Omaha. The Nebraska State Patrol told the Associated Press that Boersman lost control and rolled his vehicle on Highway 281 a half-mile south of Ayr.

Because his death occurred more than 30 days after the accident, it will not be counted in the 1979 highway death toll, the Nebraska State Patrol said.

Additional information of funeral arrangements and survivors was not available at press-time Wednesday mor-
