

April 5, 1915

Rites today (Thursday) —

Retired Judge Cullison dies

Bennett Cullison, a retired chief judge of the Fourth Judicial District in western Iowa, died Monday night at his home in Harlan. He was 78.

A native of Shelby County, Judge Cullison attended Grinnell College and the University of Iowa law school. He was admitted to the bar in 1924. In 1965, he was named a Harlan Citizen of the Years.

In 1952 Cullison resigned from his second term as Harlan mayor to become a 15th Judicial District Judge, and its Chief Judge in 1967. He was appointed Chief Judge of the Fourth Judicial District when the districts were reorganized in 1971. It was during his tenure as Harlan mayor that parking meters were installed in the city.

Funeral services are today (Thursday) at the Harlan First United Methodist Church, 11 a.m. Burial will be in the Harlan cemetery. Burmeister Funeral Home handled the arrangements.

BENNETT CULLISON
... retired chief judge
dead at age 78

Survivors include his wife, Anna May; two sons - Bennett Jr., Harlan and Alan of Hartford, Conn.; a daughter - Margaret Spencer Cullison of Lafayette, Calif.; two sisters - Mrs Gatesie Fischer of LaGrange, Ill., and Mrs Nadine Page of Santa Ana, Calif.; and nine grandchildren.

★ Deaths

Jamie Jensen, 26, Kimballton, killed Tuesday, April 3, in one-car accident north of Cherokee, Ia.

Margaret Frahm, 87, Walnut, died Sunday, April 1, at her home.