

John Cunningham

John J. Cunningham, 79, 707 S. 9th St., died Thursday at a local hospital following a brief illness.

Cunningham, a native of Lohrville, spent most of his life in Council Bluffs. He retired in 1970 after 25 years as a mail handler for the Burlington Railroad. He was a member of St. Francis Worship Center and Knights of Columbus 1045. He and his wife, Marie, observed their 58th wedding anniversary in July 1982.

Survivors in addition to his wife are three daughters, Mrs. Tom (Phyllis) Minear of Underwood, Mrs. Don (Marilyn) Ebert of Council Bluffs, and Mrs. Norbert (Patricia) Kloewer of Harlan; a sister, Mae Seward of Council Bluffs; 20 grandchildren and 22 great-grandchildren.

A funeral Mass will be Monday at 11 a.m. at St. Francis Worship Center with the Rev. Benedict J. Kenkel as celebrant. Burial will be at St. Joseph Cemetery in Council Bluffs.

Rosary recitation will be 7:30 p.m. Sunday at the Beem-Belford Funeral Home. Memorials may be made to St. Albert Schools.
