

Mae Green, 73

Harlan — Edith Mae Green, daughter of William and Eva Belle McDonald Chipman, was born on a farm in Lincoln Twp., Shelby county on June 9, 1907. She was baptized at the Shelby Methodist church. She attended a country school and grew to adulthood on her parents' farm in Lincoln Twp.

On Dec. 24, 1925, she married Grant E. Green in the Harlan Methodist parsonage. Two daughters were born to this union. They spent many of their married years farming in Shelby county. After Mr Green's retirement in 1956, they moved to Harlan. Mrs Green worked in the bakery at Harlan high school for several years, and then for many years worked in the cafeteria.

Following her daughter, Doris' death in 1960, her husband's death in 1962, and her own retirement in 1972, Mrs Green continued to make her home in Harlan. Mrs Green was a member of the First United Methodist church, Harlan where she was a member of the Wesleyan Circle and Builders class. She was also a member of the Zenobia Rebecca Lodge No. 286. Mrs Green died at St. Joseph's hospital in Omaha, Neb., on Monday, June 23, 1980, at age of 73 years and 14 days.

In addition to her parents and her husband, she was preceded in death by one daughter, Doris Mae, and one brother, Wayne. Survivors include one daughter, Joy (Mrs Arnold) Levsen of Fergus Falls, Minn., four grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren; by one brother, Russell Chipman of Harlan; four sisters - Inez (Mrs Bill) McKeighan of Storm Lake; Ellen (Mrs "Sub" Sebastian) Rossitto of Minneapolis, Minn.; Alice (Mrs Ivan) Larsen of Harlan and Dorothy (Mrs Russell) Haas of Harlan and other relatives.

Funeral services were held at Pauley Funeral Home on Thursday, June 26, 1980, with Dr. Larry LaVelle, pastor of the Harlan and Monroe Chapel Methodist churches, officiating. Burial was in the Harlan cemetery, with Don Gibson, Dwain Boeck, Jim Hockett, William Boeck, Mervin Schnack and Vernon Vrtiska serving as casketbearers.
