

Death ruled self-inflicted

LOGAN — Authorities have ruled a suicide the hanging death of Donald W. Greiner, 58, found dead Tuesday (Sept. 1) in a shed at his rural Logan home, according to the Harrison County Sheriff's Department.

Greiner, who lived alone, was believed to have died about Aug. 27, reports said. Sheriff's officers discovered his body after being called by a neighbor, who had been unable to reach Greiner after being told by a mail carrier that Greiner had not picked up his mail for several days.

GREINER, Donald W
death notice

Harlan (Iowa) Tribune
Wed. morn., Sept. 9, 1981