

Anna Hamann, 88

Persia — Anna Hamann, 88, of Co. Bluffs, died Monday, June 11, 1979, at her home. She was born in Logan and moved to Co. Bluffs 38 years ago. She was a former member of the Logan Christian church. She and her husband John observed their 37th wedding anniversary, March 2.

Survivors include her husband - John Hamann of Co. Bluffs; one daughter, Miami Johansen of Co. Bluffs; four grandchildren and ten great grandchildren; four step-daughters, Lucille Knauss of Logan; Betty Ann Meadows and Lue Peters of Co. Bluffs and Alma Jane Girton of Tucson, Ariz.; two step-sons, Orval Hamann of Fonda and Bob Hamann of Hardy, Ark.; four sisters, Nora Plumer of Logan; Dora Maness of Lawrence, Kans.; Margaret Wiese of Harlan and Emma Grobe of Oakland; nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held Thursday, June 14, 1979 at the Cutler Chapel in Co. Bluffs. Burial in the Valley View cemetery in Persia. Rev. David R. Boone, pastor of Timothy Lutheran church in Co. Bluffs, officiated.