

Former county treasurer dies

Sept. 8, 1980

Ralph Henderson, Shelby county treasurer for 34 years before retiring Dec. 31, 1978, died Saturday morning (Sept. 6) at Myrtue Memorial Hospital in Harlan.

Henderson reportedly had suffered cardiac pains at his home early Saturday morning. He was rushed to MMH and died shortly thereafter.

Henderson was a fixture at the Shelby County Courthouse since 1944 before retiring at the end of 1978. Lowell Holmes, the winner in the county treasurer's race in November, 1978, succeeded Henderson.

Survivors include his wife, Elsie. Age of the deceased and a complete list of survivors were not available as this edition went to press Saturday morning.

Services were pending at Burmeister Funeral Home in Harlan.

RALPH HENDERSON
...former county
treasurer dies