

Ethel R. Hines, 70

Persia — Ethel R. Hines, 70, Shelby died Wednesday, Jan. 7 at a Co. Bluffs hospital after long illness. She was born at Neola and was a lifelong resident of the Shelby-Neola area.

She was a member of St. Patrick's church, Neola, the Altar and Rosary Society and the Catholic Daughters of America, all of Neola. Mrs Hines graduated from St. Joseph's school in Neola.

Survivors include her husband, Paul; a daughter, Pauline Rieber of Neola; four sons, Paul R. of Hastings, Mark of Anchorage, Alaska, Michael of Atlanta, Ga. and Daniel, stationed with the Army in Germany; step-mother, Theresa Good of Griswold; two brothers, Joseph and Thomas Good, both of Griswold; sister, Dorothy Stuvick of Norton, Kans.; and three grandchildren. The funeral Mass was held in St. Patrick's church, Neola on Saturday, Jan. 10, 1981 with Rev. Paul Monahan, pastor of St. Mary's church of Avoca as celebrant. Burial was at St. Patrick's cemetery at Neola.