

Former Harlan mayor, Geo. Hurley, 76, dies

3/4/76

Former Harlan Mayor George O. Hurley, 76, died Sunday, Feb. 29, at the home of his son, Robert, in Stoughton, Wisc.

A retired Harlan attorney, Hurley was mayor from 1959-68. He was one of the original organizers of the Shelby County Myrtue Memorial Hospital and served more than 20 years on its board before retiring and moving to Wisconsin in 1973.

In 1954 he was Harlan's 'Man of the Year.'

Survivors include one son: Robert of Stoughton, Wisc.

Services are today (Thursday), 10 a.m. at Pauley Funeral Home, Harlan, with burial at Harlan Cemetery.

GEORGE HURLEY, 76
... dies in Wisconsin