

INTWERSEN, John

Harlan Iowa Tribune
Wed April 27, 1983 pg 12B
Persia News

John Ingwersen of Omaha, son of Edwin and Mabel Ingwersen was born July 27, 1934 in Persia and spent his life there until he entered the Navy in which he served in the Korea war. He was manager of the J.C. Penney Westroads automotive store since it first opened. He died April 4, 1983 at an Omaha hospital during heart surgery at the age of 48 years. Graveside military services were conducted by the Persia American Legion at Valley View cemetery near Persia. Surviving are his wife, Delores of Omaha; a son, Ed of Omaha; two grandchildren; one sister, Joyce Welbourne of Neola and his mother, Mabel Ingwersen of Persia.