

Jacob Marinus Jacobsen, son of Jens and Dorothea Nielsen Jacobsen, was born Dec. 6, 1899 in Denmark. At the age of six, he came with his parents to the U.S., settling on a farm near Kirkman. He attended school in Kirkman and later his family moved to Harlan, where he graduated from high school. He then worked as a hired hand for two years. In 1919, he went to work for Ben Cohn at his grocery store and later at Huckin's Grocery Store.

On Dec. 28, 1927, he married Clara Marie Kirk at Kimballton. Two sons were born to this union. After their marriage, they made their home in Harlan where he continued to work in the grocery business. In 1937, he became the manager of the A & P Food Store in Harlan. After retiring in 1947, they moved to Los Angeles, Calif., where he worked at a grocery store and then a creamery. After Mrs Jacobsen died on Aug. 28, 1969, he continued to make his home in Calif. until 1976, when he moved back to Harlan to be near his grandchildren. On June 28, 1982, he became a resident of the Baptist Memorial Home in Harlan. This is where he died on Nov. 28, 1982 at age 82 years, 11 months and 16 days.

In addition to his wife and parents, he was preceded in death by one son, Dale, in 1962; two granddaughters; one brother, Howard, and two sisters, Agnes and Dagmar. He is survived by one son, Richard of Fontana, Calif.; six grandchildren and four great grandchildren; one brother, Henry of Orlando, Fla.; two sisters, Anna Lewis of Kenosha, Wisc., and Hazel Dehnie of Wisco.; nieces, nephews and other relatives.

Graveside services were held at the Inglewood cemetery in Inglewood, Calif. on Friday, Nov. 26, 1982.

Pauley Funeral Home of Harlan, handled the arrangements.
