

JAMISON, L.S.
death notice

Lynn S. Jamison
Principal

L. S.
Jamison, 86

MINNETONKA, MINN. — Services for Lynn S. Jamison, longtime principal in the Harlan Community Schools, were held Mon., April 11 at Faith Presbyterian Church here. Burial was at Fort Snelling, Minn., with full military rites.

Jamison, 86, died Sat., April 9 at a Minneapolis nursing home where he resided for 17 days.

He was born Dec. 25, 1896 in Bigsville, Ill. He retired from the Harlan school system in May, 1963.

Jamison was a 50-year member of Parian Lodge No. 321, Harlan, and was a past

Harlan Iowa Tribune
Wed April 13, 1983 pg 2A

master; a member of American Legion Helmer E. Reyelt Post No. 150; and of United Congregational Christian Church.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Marian in 1965, and his second wife, Thelma in 1976. He moved to Brownsville, Texas, where he had made his home since 1979.

His only surviving relative is a nephew, Dean Jamison of 13823 No. Knollway Dr., Minnetonka, Minn., 55343, who suggests memorials may be made to Memorial Educational Aid Program, Faith Presbyterian Church, 12007 Excelsior Blvd., Minnetonka, Minn., 55343.