

Agnes K. Jorgensen, 69

Omaha, Neb. — Mrs Agnes Kvamme Jorgensen, daughter of Mr and Mrs John Kvamme, was born Sept. 9, 1909 in Fossiland, Norway. She died Sunday, Feb. 18, 1979 in Omaha, Neb., at age 69 years.

Mrs Jorgensen was a graduate of Irwin high school and Jennie Edmundson Hospital School of Nursing in Co. Bluffs. She married Harold H. Jorgensen. They made their home in Harlan. Two daughters were born to this union. Mr Jorgensen and his brother-in-law, Alvin Preuss, operated the Harlan Milk Depot. They moved to Omaha in 1946 and she continued as a private duty nurse. Agnes was an active member of First Baptist church in Omaha.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Harold; her parents, and a sister, Esther. She is survived by two daughters, Kay (Mrs Duane Arnold) of Franklin, Ind., and Karen (Mrs Howard Kennedy) of Portland, Oreg.; five grandchildren, Kirsten and Kevin Arnold and Howard, Jennifer and Chris Kennedy; a sister, Mrs Alvin (Vivian) Preuss of Ashland, Neb., and a brother, Iner Kvamme of Omaha.

Funeral services were held Wednesday, Feb. 21, 1979 at the First Baptist church in Omaha, Neb., with burial at Forest Lawn Memorial Park. Pallbearers were George Jorgensen, Harris Jorgensen, James Jorgensen, John Jorgensen, Jr. and Tom Van Hou.

1979