

Lloyd Kemmish,

Persia — Lloyd W. Kemmish was born in Logan. He was a graduate of the Logan high school. He was a pharmaceutical representative for Eli Lilly Co. for 31 years. He was a member of the Beacon Chapel, the Spokane Pharmaceutical Assn. and the Cougar club. He was also a WW II veteran.

He lived in Spokane, Wash., for 35 years. This is where he died on Tuesday, Jan. 8, 1980.

Survivors include his wife - Marjory of Spokane; a daughter - Mrs Susan Batten of Boise, Idaho; a son - James W. Kemmish of Seattle, Wash., his mother - Mrs Lottie Kemmish of Persia; two sisters - Herma Wilson of Persia and Lorna Hansen of San Diego, Calif.; a brother - Duane Kemmish of Persia and two grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Thursday, Jan. 10, 1980 at the Hazen and Jaeger Funeral Home in Spokane. Burial was in Fairmount cemetery there.
