

The Life Story of --

CHARLES A. KOESTERS, 83

Earling — Charles A. Koesters, son of Anton and Mary Koesters was born Aug. 20, 1892 near Earling. He grew to manhood and attended area schools. He farmed in the Earling area and in the early 1950's went to Omaha where he was employed until his retirement. He served four years in the U. S. Navy. He died in the Lutheran Medical Center in Omaha on Oct. 1, 1975 at age 83 years, 11 months and one day.

Survivors include: two brothers, Brother Macarius Koesters, Alexian Fathers of San Jose, Calif. and Fred Koesters of Earling; three sisters, Sister Ruperta, O.S.F., Sr. Cecile O.S.F both of Campbellsport, Wisc., and Sr. Mary Koesters of Milwaukee, Wisc., nieces and nephews. His brother John (Jack) Koesters preceded him in death by three days.

Funeral services were held Sat., Oct. 4, 1975, in St. Joseph's church in Earling with a Mass of the Resurrection celebrated by Rev Jon Kautsky. Burial was in St. Joseph's cemetery. Pallbearers were Albert Koesters, Ivo Koesters, Jerry Koesters, Charles Patten, Francis Koesters, Richard Ziola, Gary Wilkins and Dale Kohles.