

Harlan (iowa) News Advertiser
November 14, 1981

~~Death~~ Notice

Dan Lippold, 74

AVOCA — Funeral services for Dan Lippold, a retired farmer and lifelong resident of the Avoca area, will be held at 1:30 p.m. Monday (Nov. 16) at Trinity Lutheran Church here, with burial in Graceland Cemetery.

Lippold, 74, died Thursday at Myrtue Memorial Hospital, Harlan.

Survivors include his wife, Viola; four brothers — Ted, of Taunton, Mass., and George, Fred and Frank, all of Avoca; and four sisters — Ann (Mrs. Leonard) Wohlhutter of Harlan, Bess (Mrs. Peter) Trzeciak and Emily (Mrs. LeRoy) Holloway, both of Council Bluffs, and Margaret (Mrs. Russell) Willett of Waldorf, Md.

Berthusen-Knutson Funeral Home. is handling the arrangements in Avoca.

LIPPOLD, Dan

Mrs. Leonard Wohlhutter attended funeral services for her brother, Dan Lippold, in Avoca Mon., Nov. 16.

Others attending included: Harry Bamesbergers and daughter of Valpariso, Ind.; Ted Lippold, Taunton, Mass.; Pete Bamesbergers and daughter, Melvin Bamesbergers, Bill Storeys and family, Pete Trzeciaks and Lucille, Mrs. Leroy Holloway, Jerry Thomsens, Clarence Russmanns, all of Council Bluffs; Herbert Russmanns, John Stuhrs, Minden; Mrs. Lorraine Trzeciak, Crescent; George Livingstons, Winterset; Lawrence Rocks, Grant; Ernest Jipps, Adair; Kenneth Updikes and Lillie Russman, Red Oak; and Duane Johnsons of Creston.

Harlan (Iowa) Tribune
Wed. morn., Nov. 25, 1981
Harlan News. Pg. 4A

D