

George Sabin, 74

morn. Feb. 24, 1982 pg12B

George Sabin, son of Emil and Thressa Sabin, was born March 20, 1908 on a farm near Indianola, Neb. As a child, he attended school as he moved with his family to Calif., Colo. and Mont. At the age of 16, he went out on his own and worked at various odd jobs throughout the years. He also served his country in the U.S. Army as a cook during World War II. After receiving his honorable discharge, he lived in Boise, Idaho before making his home in Oreg. where he lived for many years. In 1970, he moved from Salt Lake City, Utah to Harlan, where he worked as a farm hand and at Super Valu as well as various other odd jobs. In 1978, he moved in with his daughter, Melody. This has been his home since that time.

He died at St. Joseph's hospital in Omaha, on Sunday, Feb. 7, 1982 at the age of 74 years.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by one daughter, Arlene. He is survived by five sons, Steve, Gary of Eagle Point, Oreg., Darrell, Zane and Allen, all of Bedford, Oreg.; six daughters, Shirley Sabin of Reno, Nev., Linda Lee Burns of Bedford, Oreg., Alta Mae (Mrs Larry) Taylor of Kamiah, Idaho, Melody (Mrs Jody) Bruck, Marie Sabin and Teresa Sabin, all of Harlan; seven grandchildren; one sister, Charlene Sabin of Los Angeles, Calif., and other relatives.

Fuñeral services were held at Pauley Funeral Home in Harlan on Wednesday, Feb. 10, 1982 with Dr. Larry LaVelle of the First United Methodist church of Harlan officiating.

Burial was in the Harlan cemetery with Ron Rose, Pat Davitt, Wayne C. Nevel, Jerry Bruck and Vern Buschkamp serving as casketbearers.
