

Anna M. Schiltz, 81

Earling — Anna Marie Schiltz, daughter of Arnold and Mary Leenan Ebert was born on a farm in Shelby county near Westphalia, on Jan. 12, 1899. She was baptized in the Catholic faith and was confirmed at St. Mary's church in Portsmouth. She attended St. Mary's school and grew to adulthood in Portsmouth.

On Feb. 25, 1919, she married Lawrence Schiltz at St. Joseph's Church in Earling. Five children were born to this union. They farmed in the Denison and Arion vicinity for a number of years and later farmed near Panama and Dunlap. They then farmed in the Woodbine and Logan area for 20 years before retiring in 1962 and moving into Logan.

After Lawrence's death in 1964, Anna continued to make her home in Logan until 1972 when she became a resident of Little Flower Haven, Earling. This has been her home since that time.

Mrs Schiltz died at Myrtue Memorial hospital in Harlan, on Monday, Jan. 21, 1980, at age 81 years and nine days. She had been a long time member of St. Anne's Catholic church and Altar Society in Logan.

In addition to her parents and her husband, she was preceded in death by two sons, Charles and Arthur; and a sister, Lena Schimerowski. Survivors include two sons - Gerald Schiltz of Portsmouth and Donald Schiltz of Co. Bluffs; a daughter, Marcella (Mrs Merle Malone) of Woodbine; 11 grandchildren; and ten great-grandchildren; by two brothers - John (Jack) Ebert of Harlan and Arthur Ebert of Denver, Colo.; a sister, Caroline (Mrs Sylvester Finken) of Omaha; nieces and nephews and other relatives.

A Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated at St. Joseph's church in Earling, on Wednesday, Jan. 23, 1980, with Rev. Jon Kautzky as celebrant. Burial was in Pleasant Hill cemetery, Dunlap, with Don Ebert, James Rock, Earl Anastasi, Kenneth Schiltz, Stanley Schiltz, and Larry Schimerowski serving as pallbearers.

Pauley Funeral Home in Harlan was in charge of the services.
