

The Life Story of --

RONALD P. SCOLLARD, 18

PANAMA — Ronald Patrick Scollard, son of William T. and Geraldine Gill Scollard, was born in West Point, Nebr., on Oct. 14, 1957. He died as a result of injuries suffered in an automobile accident, three miles south of Earling, just ten days after his 18th birthday. At the time of his birth, Ronnie's parents were residents of Wisner, Nebr. In 1960 he moved with his parents, to their present home in Panama. He was baptized and confirmed in the Catholic church and had been a member of St. Mary's Catholic church since moving to Panama. Ronnie was a senior at Harlan Community high school where he was a member of the Trades and Industries program. It was through this training program that he was employed for the Panama Oil Co. He was preceded in death by his father on May 12 of this year.

In addition to his mother, Mrs Geraldine Scollard of Panama, he is survived by two sisters, Patricia (Mrs Norbert Hoffmann) of Co. Bluffs and Carol (Mrs Mickey Guinan) of Omaha, Nebr., and three brothers, Raymond of Omaha and Patrick and Michael, both of Panama, aunts and uncles, nieces and nephews, other relatives and many friends.

A Mass of Christian burial was celebrated at St. Mary's Catholic church in Panama on Monday, Oct. 27, 1975 with Rev Fred P. Reischl as celebrant. Burial was in St. Mary's cemetery with Brian Arkfeld, Jerome Kohles, Duane Assmann, Don Zimmerman, Ron Kohles and Allan Zimmerman serving as pallbearers.
