

SIMONSEN, J. Ahlman

DEATH NOTICE

HARLAN (IOWA) TRIBUNE

Wed Morn., Dec 30, 1981 pg 2A

J. Ahlman Simonsen, 87

AVOCA — Funeral services for J. Ahlman Simonsen, a former Avoca resident, will be held at 2 p.m. today (Wednesday) at Bertusen-Knutson Funeral Home here. Burial will be in Graceland Cemetery.

Simonsen, who came to the U.S. from Denmark in 1927, died early Monday at Salem Lutheran Nursing Home in Elk Horn.

He is survived by his wife, Johanna of Elk Horn; a daughter, Harriett (Mrs. Allan) Peters of Avoca; sons Egon, of Elk Horn, and Paul, of Walnut; a brother, Arthur, and sisters Emma, Esther, Any, Harriet and Ely, all in Denmark; seven grandchildren, and five great-grandchildren.

nonpareil
Southwest I

J. A. Simonsen

Special to The Nonpareil

AVOCA — J. Ahlman Simonsen, 87, formerly of Avoca, died early today at an Elk Horn nursing home after a long illness.

A retired farmer, Simonsen was a native of Vraa, Denmark, who came to the United States in 1927. He was a member of Trinity Lutheran Church at Avoca.

He is survived by his wife, Johanna, Elk Horn; a daughter, Harriett (Mrs. Allan) Peters, Avoca; sons Egon, of Elk Horn, and Paul, of Walnut; a brother, Arthur, and sisters Emma, Esther, Any, Harriet and Ely, all in Denmark; seven grandchildren, and five great-grandchildren.

Services will be at 2 p.m. Wednesday at the Berthusen-Knudson funeral Home, Avoca, with pastor Harold Peterson presiding. Burial will be in Graceland Cemetery. The family will meet friends at the funeral home from 7 to 8 p.m. Tuesday.

Mon. Dec 28, 1981