Kirkman natives die in California

A memorial service was held June 8 for Richard "Dale" Slates, 74, of Chico, Calif. He was a Kirkman native and moved to California in the '30's.

Dale's brother, Harold Slates, 79, of Central Point, Calif. died in April.

The men were sons of the late Mr. and Mrs. Harry Slates of Kirkman.

Local survivors in addition to their immediate families in California include Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Baughman; Mr. and Mrs. Dale Baughman of Kirkman; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Sorensen and Mrs. and Mrs. Robert Sorensen.

Relatives and friends received word of the death of Dale Slates in Chico, Calif., June 6, age 65. He was the son of Harry Slates and Vernie Baughman Slates and lived near Kirkman until moving to Calif. He was preceded in death by his parents and brother, Harold. He is survived by his sister, Ida Mae Sorenson and wife and other family members, also the death of Ron Monson on May 8 at Denison. Ron was the son of the late Minor and Grace Monson who were residences of Kirkman for several years.
