

The Life Story of --

PATRICK M. SMITH, 21

PORTSMOUTH — Patrick

Michael Smith, son of Gene and Marian Raymond Smith, was born Dec. 18, 1952 in Co. Bluffs. He died Dec. 30, 1973 at Myrtue Memorial hospital just 21 days after his 21st birthday. His death occurred suddenly as the result of an auto accident. He was baptized and confirmed at St. Mary's church in Portsmouth and he is now a member of St. Michael's church in Harlan. He attended St. Mary's school in Portsmouth through the eighth grade and he graduated from the Harlan Community high school in May of 1971. Soon after his graduation he moved to Harlan and he has worked for Harlan Builders since that time.

Pat is survived by his parents, Gene and Marian of Panama; six sisters, Jennifer (Mrs Richard J. King) of Dallas, Tex., Nan Smith of Omaha, Nebr., and Gail, Geri, Jean, and Mary Lou Smith, at home; and by five brothers - Dennis of Plattsmouth, Nebr., Pat's twin brother, Jack, of Harlan, Kit of Harlan, and two brothers, Tim and Jay, at home; by his grandmother, Rose (Mrs Louis Raymond) of Portsmouth; his aunts and uncles; cousins and other relatives.

A Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated at St. Mary's church in Portsmouth on Wednesday, Jan. 2, 1974 with Rev. Edward R. Kelly as celebrant. Rev Fred P. Reischl was concelebrant and Tim Smith was lector. Burial was in St. Mary's cemetery in Portsmouth with Denny Smith, Jack Smith, Kit Smith, Jay Smith, Billy Smith, and Rick King serving as pallbearers. The Pauley Home for Funerals of Harlan was in charge of funeral arrangements.
