

Phyllis Stoltenberg, 65

Phyllis Stoltenberg, daughter of John and Elsie Harvey Lucas was born Oct. 25, 1917 at Lower Gornalwood, Sedgley, England and died Oct. 23, 1982 at St. Joseph's hospital in Omaha, following a sudden illness.

She was married to Kenneth Fiscus in England during World War II. The couple moved to the U.S. shortly after the war. They had three children. They first lived in Colo. and later moved to Harlan, where she worked at the Baptist Memorial Home. The couple then moved to Avoca and operated the Fiscus Nursing Home, then she became part-owner and administrator of the Avoca Nursing Home. After it was sold to Colonial Manors, she continued as administrator.

She was married to Otto Stoltenberg of Walnut on Dec. 13, 1968, and moved to Walnut.

She is survived by her husband, Otto; a son, Keith Fiscus of Wichita Falls, Texas; two daughters: Mrs Sam (Judith) Howell II of Omaha and Mrs Philip (Diane) Healey of Lakewood, Colo.; seven grandchildren and two sisters, Mrs Joan Bradley and Mrs Gordon Sutcliffe, both of England.

Funeral services were held at the Berthussen-Knutson Funeral Home in Avoca, Oct. 28, 1982 with Pastor Harold Peterson of Trinity Lutheran church of Avoca officiating. Organist was Mrs Creighton Kaven.

Larry Butler, Eldon Popp, Lawrence Anderson, Hubert Zobrist, Louis Pedersen, Jr. and John Berthussen served as pallbearers. Burial was in Graceland cemetery in Avoca.