

, Ron
notice

Harlan (Iowa) Tribune

Thurs morn, March 5, 1981 pg 2

services for Ron Vargas, 18, grandson of the Belmont Nissens of Kimballton, were held Mon., March 2 at Roland Funeral Home here. Burial was at Immanuel Lutheran Cemetery in Kimballton.

Vargas, son of Mrs. Harold Herman of Atlantic and Al Vargas of Longton, Kan., died Thurs., Feb. 26 in a Council Bluffs hospital from injuries received in a Jan. 19 auto accident.

Vargas was a passenger in a car driven by Daniel Weihs, 18, Marne, when it went out of control on a gravel road two miles south of Atlantic and went over an embankment. He was thrown from the car and taken to Jennie Edmundson Hospital in Council Bluffs. He was an Atlantic high school senior.

Also surviving are a brother, Gary, and sister, Mary, both of Atlantic; four stepsisters and a stepbrother;