

Freda Weber, 74

Harlan — Freda Weber, daughter of Ed and Johanna Jensen, was born in Denmark on Dec. 14, 1903. As a baby, she moved with her parents to a farm near Irwin. She attended country school and grew to adulthood on the farm. On Dec. 18, 1925, she married William H. Weber in Co. Bluffs. Five children were born to this union.

After their marriage, Mr and Mrs Weber farmed northeast of Harlan until 1934. They then moved to a farm east of Irwin and this was their home until 1961, when they retired from the farm and moved to Chariton. In 1966 they moved to Harlan and this has been her home since that time. Freda was employed as a cook at the Myrtue Memorial hospital in Harlan from Aug. of 1966 until Dec. of 1973. She died at Myrtue Memorial hospital in Harlan on April 10, 1978, at age 74 years, three months and 26 days. She was a member of the First United Methodist church, the United Methodist Women, and the Myrtue Memorial Hospital Auxiliary, all in Harlan.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by a daughter, Marjorie (Mrs Leroy Johansen); and by two brothers, Hans and Roy Jensen. Her survivors include her husband, Bill Weber, of Harlan; a daughter, Norma Adams, of Conroe, Tex.; three sons - George and Dean Weber, both of Manning and Leland Weber of Audubon; 23 grandchildren and 18 great-grandchildren; by two sisters, Bertha Armentrout of Fiscus and Alta (Mrs Robert Campbell) of Overland Park, Kans.; three brothers - Nels and Elmer Jensen, both of Harlan and Oscar Jensen of Ankeny; nieces and nephews and other relatives.

Funeral services were held at the First United Methodist church in Harlan on Wednesday, April 12, 1978, with Rev Larry LaVelle officiating. Burial was in the Arlington Heights cemetery in Audubon with John Klein and John E. Vithen serving as honorary bearers and Harry Krohn, Dick Powell, Harry Nollen, Willis Myrtue, C. W. Norman and Roy Hemminger serving as casketbearers.
