

Julie Ausdemore, 47 ✓

July 7, 1958 - June 14, 2006

WALNUT — Julie Ann Ausdemore, daughter of Paul and Bonnie (Vinding) Mitchell, was born July 7, 1958, in Council Bluffs. She attended school in Avoca and graduated with the class of 1976. After high school, she attended Iowa Western Community College in Council Bluffs earning her Associate's degree as a dental assistant.

April 15, 1978, Julie was united in marriage to Dean Ausdemore at the United Church of Avoca. Three children were born to this union, Nicole, Dustin and Brooke. After her marriage, she worked as a dental assistant at the Atlantic Dental Center for two years, then stayed at home on the family farm to help Dean and raise her children. She later went on to work for the housekeeping department at Peace Haven in Walnut and this has been her job since. She was a member of St. Patrick's Catholic Church in Walnut. Julie died at her home in Walnut June 14, 2006, at age 47 years, 11 months and seven days.

Julie is survived by her husband, Dean Ausdemore of Walnut; her children, Nicole Ausdemore, and her friend, Troy Watts of Riceville; Dustin Ausdemore of Walnut; and Brooke Ausdemore, and her friend, James Ploen of Walnut; her parents, Paul and Bonnie Mitchell of Avoca; her sister, Lori (Denny) Iwen of Avoca, and her brother, Jon Mitchell (Angie) of Walnut; her brother-in-law, Duane Ausdemore (Ann) of Lowell, IN; nieces and other relatives.

A Mass of Christian Burial was held June 19, 2006, at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Avoca, with burial at St. Patrick's Cemetery in Walnut, with Rev. John Frost celebrant. Honorary casket bearers were Suzy Larsen, Lorraine Howell, Marlys Larsen, Aloma Riley and Wendy Prociw. Casket bearers were Brett Petersen, Craig Woltmann, Walter Snyder, Scott Hess, Rick McMurphy, Jerry Stamp, Doug Matthies and David A. Thies. Pauley Jones Funeral Home in Avoca in charge of arrangements.