

Carl A. Bornholdt, 75

Dec. 1, 1920 - Nov. 3, 1996

ATLANTIC - Carl Arnold Bornholdt, 75, of rural Atlantic died Nov. 3, 1996, at his farm home north of Atlantic. The son of Orville E. and Margaret Mary Brink Bornholdt, he was born Dec. 1, 1920, southeast of Marne. He grew up in various communities including Marne, Massena, Rorbeck and Exira and graduated from the Exira High School.

He married Iona "Mickey" Marxen Jan. 31, 1945, at the Grace Presbyterian Church in Co. Bluffs. Following marriage they lived in the Kimballton, Audubon, Marne areas and moved to their present farm in 1967. He farmed for 52 years and presently was still farming when he had a heart attack at his home. He was a longtime member of Grove Lodge #492 AF & AM and Liberty Chapter #230 Order of Eastern Star of Marne.

He was preceded in death by his parents; a son, Calvin Bornholdt in April 1996, and two brothers, Arlin and Everett Bornholdt. He is survived by his wife, Iona "Mickey" of rural Atlantic; two daughters, Karen Johnson (Bill) of Avoca, and Sherry Duffey (Ken) of Iowa City; a daughter-in-law, Roseanna Bornholdt of El Cajon, CA; eight grandchildren; brothers and sisters and their spouses, Ross (Jean) Bornholdt of Walnut; Donald (Marlis) Bornholdt of Atlantic; Max (Joan) Bornholdt of Walnut; Robert (Judy) Bornholdt of Kimballton; Helen (John) Marxen, Jr. of Atlantic; Darlene (Dewey) Hess of Harlan and Janis (Wilbert) Andersen of Atlantic, and two sisters-in-law, Janet Bornholdt of Atlantic and Judy Williams of Texas.

Funeral services were held Nov. 6, 1996, at the Roland Funeral Home with Rev. Stan Nielsen, United Lutheran Church, Shelby, officiating. Burial was in the Brighton Township Cemetery, Marne. Casket bearers were Alan Johnson, Ken Duffy, Dwayne Bornholdt, Jerod Johnson, Bill Johnson and Kevin Hess. Roland Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.