

Sarah Jane Butler, 90

Jan. 18, 1902 — Sept. 14, 1992

JEFFERSON — Sarah Jane Butler, daughter of William and Mary Rohan Quirk, was born Jan. 18, 1902, on a farm north of Jefferson, and died Sept. 14, 1992, in Jefferson, at age 90 years, 7 months and 26 days. She received her education from Jefferson Community Schools. She then worked for the Semple Cigar Factory for a few years.

June 25, 1923, she married John E. Butler at the St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Jefferson. They were the parents of Cyril, Mary Louise and Margaret Ann. She was the organist at the Catholic Church for many years and also taught catechism classes. They served as janitors for the church. After John's death in 1989, she continued being the janitor up to the time of her death. She was a member of the St. Joseph's Catholic Church, Catholic Daughters of America and St. Joseph's Guild.

She was preceded in death by her parents; husband, John; daughter, Mary Louise; sister, Clara Butler; brothers, Lawrence Quirk, and John Quirk. She is survived by one son, Cyril (Beverly) of Harlan; one daughter, Margaret Ann (Bob) Reinsch of Fremont, NE.; 8 grandchildren; 23 great-grandchildren; 3 great-great-grandchildren; one brother, William Quirk (Mary) of Denver, CO.; and other relatives. Hastings Funeral Home in Jefferson was in charge of arrangements. Funeral Mass was held Sept. 17, 1992, in Jefferson's St. Joseph Catholic Church with burial in that city.
