

Delmer J. Bell, 100

UNDERWOOD – Delmer J. Bell was born in rural Underwood to J.W. Bell and Anna Quick Bell. He attended school through the eighth grade at Underwood and then attended business college in Co. Bluffs for two winters. He was a retired farmer and had operated the roller rink at the McClelland town hall. He was member of the Underwood Lutheran Church and the Farm Bureau. He had lived in Harlan since 1985. He died June 14, 2000, at Elm Crest Retirement Community at age 100 years.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Frieda R. Bell, Aug. 4, 1973. He is survived by his former son-in-law, Eldon W. (Barbara) McCall of Harlan; grandsons, Rod (Jacquie) McCall of Underwood; Mike (Connie) McCall of Topeka, KS; great granddaughters, Jessica McCall of Underwood; Allison and Ashley McCall of Topeka, KS; a brother, Roy Bell (Irene) of Roseburg, OR; nieces, nephews and other relatives.

Funeral services were held at the Cutler Chapel June 17, 2000, wit Rev. David Berndhardt of the Underwood Lutheran Church officiating. Burial was in the Hardin Township Cemetery in rural McClelland. Cutler Funeral Chapel of Co. Bluffs in charge of arrangements.