

Nancy Boos, 42

Aug. 27, 1968 -Sept. 29, 2010

COUNCIL BLUFFS, IA – Nancy Jean Dinesen, daughter of Melvin and Janis (Havick) Dinesen was born August 27, 1968 in Harlan. She grew up on a farm near Harlan and attended Harlan grade school and graduated from HCHS class of 1986.

After graduation Nancy attended IWCC for one year. It was there she met her future husband, Lonnie Boos of Council Bluffs. She was a long time employee of First Data Resources in Omaha and also a part-time employee of JC Penney in Council Bluffs. She died at her home Wednesday, September 29, 2010 in Council Bluffs.

Nancy was preceded in death by her grandparents, Leonard and Jane Dinesen and Jeannette Havick all of Harlan. She is survived by her husband Lonnie Boos, two sons Nick (Brianne) and Ben, and daughters Mallory and Natalie all of Council Bluffs; also one grandson Landyn Boos of Council Bluffs; her parents Melvin and Janis Dinesen; sister Amy (Robert) Heflin all of Harlan, and a brother Jason (Tracy) Dinesen of Indianola; and grandfather Dallas Havick of Harlan. Also two nephews, Matt Heflin, Anchorage, AK, and Jackson Dinesen, Indianola and a niece Ashley Heflin, Buffalo, SD.

Services were held Oct. 2, 2010 at New Life Fellowship Church in Council Bluffs with Rev. Annette Wagoner officiating. Burial was in Ridgewood Cemetery in Council Bluffs. Pallbearers were Tom Selze, Jeff Peters, Bob Turk, Robert Heflin, Jason Dinesen and David Havick.

Nancy suggested all memorials go to the Susan G. Koman Breast Cancer Foundation.

