

Lloyd Winfield Cadwell, 84

March 14, 1911 - Nov. 16, 1995

Manilla - Lloyd Winfield Cadwell was born March 14, 1911 at Manning, son of Alvin Winfield and Tilda Gudilla Wigg Cadwell. The family resided at Mapleton until he was four years old when they returned to Manilla. He received his education in the Manilla Public School through the eighth grade and attended high school for one year at Lakota, SD. He moved to MT when he was age 16 where he was employed as a ranch hand, later being employed as a performer and animal caretaker for the Seal Brothers Circus. He returned to Manilla in 1935 riding a buckskin horse the entire way from MT.

Dec. 15, 1933 he married Margaret Birdie Warner. They made their home in Manilla and the past 38 years had resided at Astor in rural Manilla. Throughout his adult working years he held several different types of employment including truck driver for Brady Transfer and Paul Knop; farming for himself for one year at Dow City; farm hand for C.A. Saunders, wool buyer for William Miller; truck driver for E.R. Longnecker; part time employee of W.C. White Furniture and Funeral Parlor; one year for John Mundt at the Chevy Garage in Ricketts and for 29 1/2 years he was employed for the City of Manilla as electrical lineman and water maintenance man, retiring in 1975. Following his retirement he was employed for ten summers for the Manilla Telephone Company. In the early 1930's he served in the Civilian Conservation Corps stationed in AR working in the forestry service and as cook and baker. For many years he was on the special police force in Manilla and in the 1930's and '40's he was a professional wrestler. Feb. 7 of this year tragedy struck and they lost their home and possessions in a house fire. Since that time he had made his home with his daughter, Karen and husband, Wayne Plagman at Irwin. He died Nov. 16, 1995 at the Crawford County Memorial Hospital in Denison at age 84 years, 8 months and 2 days. He was baptized at St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Irwin and was a member of the United Church in Manilla.

Including his parents he was preceded in death by two sisters, Mabel Miller and Erma Cadwell who died in infancy; four brothers, Vernon Cadwell and three in infancy, Judson and twins, Ray and Roy Cadwell; two half sisters, Maud Ward and Maurine Willson; one half brother, Willis Cadwell; son-in-law, Elmer Lanoue; daughter-in-law, Dixie Turner Cadwell; father and mother-in-law, Jesse and Hedvka Warner and two brothers-in-law, Harry and William Warner. He is survived by his wife, Margaret Cadwell of the Little Flower Haven in Earling; five children, Elsie Lloydene Cadwell of Manilla; William Stanley Cadwell and special friend, Suk Adams of Manilla; Karen Alice (Wayne H.) Plagman of Irwin; Juanita Kay (W. "Johnny West") Heyn of Colorado City, CO and Margaret "Midge" Smith (Roland) of Defiance; 17 grandchildren including two grandsons raised in their home, Gregory Cadwell (Sheryl) and Jeffrey Malone of Manilla; one foster granddaughter, 23 great grandchildren; two sisters, Grace King of Defiance and Alma "Randy" (Christopher) Yager of Co. Bluffs; nieces, nephews and other relatives.

Memorial services were held Nov. 20, 1995 at the United Methodist Church in Manilla with Rev. Ken Ritchie officiating. Honorary casket bearers were Ward Sebern, Ray Kluender, Ronald Christensen, Mervin Arnold, Doug Backhaus, Gene Hahn, Mike Barry, Glen Macumber, Jim Macumber, Roger Ahrenholtz, Keith Saunders and Kent Gruhn. Burial was in the Astor Cemetery in rural Manilla. The Pfannebecker Funeral Home in Denison in charge of arrangements.