

Harlan, Iowa
News Advertiser
pg 2-A, Saturday
September 12, 1987

177411

Esther H. Carpenter, 74

NEOLA —Services for Esther H. Carpenter, former dietician for the Tri-Center School District, were Tuesday morning (Sept. 8) at Neola Presbyterian Church. Burial was in Neola Township Cemetery.

Mrs. Carpenter, 74, died Sat., Sept. 5, 1987, at Council Bluffs Nursing Center after a year-long illness.

A native of Columbus, NE., she was a Neola resident for 54 years. She married twice, first to Walter Rodenburg, who preceded her in death in 1961, and then to Harry Carpenter, who died in 1977.

She was a graduate of the Columbus, NE., schools and the University of Nebraska-Lincoln. After her retirement, she was in farm management.

Surviving are two sons, Walter W. ("Bill") Rodenburg of Dayton, OH., and Fred Rodenburg of Neola; three brothers - Jerome Luckey and Walt Luckey, both of Columbus, and Clarence Luckey of Stockton, CA.; a sister, Irene Hake of Platte Center, NE.; ten grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren.