

Brent "Dallas" Chimienti, 63

Jan. 5, 1948 - Jan. 4, 2012

ELK HORN — Brent "Dallas" Chimienti was born on January 5, 1948 in Sanger, CA. His parents were Frank and Mari (Manjary) Chimienti. He was raised on a farm and did a lot of work with his father and brother. He graduated from Dinuba High School in Dinuba, CA. He was then drafted into the United States Army and served during the Vietnam War until his honorable discharge in 1969. He returned to California after his discharge and worked for Friant Water Users. He had three daughters: twins Angela and Brandi and Nicole. He enjoyed woodworking, music, especially country and rock n' roll, and he was very creative, innovative and young at heart. He moved to Atlantic to live closer to his daughter Brandi and her children. He remained there for a year and a half before moving to Arizona to enjoy the warmer weather. It was here that he met his significant other Lawona Newman. After the deterioration of Dallas's health, he moved back to Iowa to be closer to his daughter and grandchildren. He entered the Salem Lutheran Homes in Elk Horn in December of 2011 and this is where he died on Wednesday, January 4, 2012 having attained the age of sixty-three years, eleven months and thirty days.

Brent is preceded in death by his parents. He is survived by his daughters: twins, Angela Kelly of Fresno, CA, Brandi Romero of Atlantic, and Nicole Parker of California; Eddie Romero (the son he never had); three grandchildren: Noah Romero, Arianna Romero and Micaela Parker; sister Cathi Bartel and brother Frank Chimienti both of California; his significant other Lawona Newman of Arizona; niece Taylor Chimienti; nephews Dylan Chimienti and Joey Chimienti; other relatives and friends. Pauley Jones Funeral Home in Avoca was in charge of arrangements.

*Pauley
Jones*

FUNERAL HOME & CREMATORY
 (712) 755-3135 • (800) 831-6805
www.pauleyjones.com
 Baldwin at 9th, Harlan, IA
 Also in Avoca & Walnut