

Harlan News-Advertiser
Friday, February 9, 2007

Adelaide Croghan, her family and relatives received word of the death of her brother, Francis Gaul, who lived in Longview, Washington. He died Jan. 30 at age 84. He is survived by his wife, Claire, and six children and spouses and families. All of the families live in the Longview area. The Mass of Christian burial was held at the local Catholic church in Longview.