

Doris Economos, 69

HARLAN - Doris LaVonne Economos, daughter of Henry Virgil and Ida Goldie (Smith) Thornburg was born at Sioux Rapids, on Sept. 4, 1918. She died at the Bishop Clarkson Memorial Hospital in Omaha, NE on May 21, 1988, at age 69 years, eight months and 17 days. As a young girl, she moved with her family to Bayard and then to Harlan, where she attended Harlan High School. After high school, she moved to CA where she worked as a waitress, managed restaurants and raised her family.

On March 25, 1961, she married Thomas Economos in Reno, NV. After their marriage, they lived in Vancouver, British Columbia. Tom died on July 18, 1984 and in 1985, she moved back to Harlan and has made her home with her sister, Virginia, since that time.

She was preceded in death by her parents and husband. She is survived by a daughter, Sandra Kay Mitchell of Carson City, NV; a step son, Thomas Gary Economy of Vancouver, British Columbia; a step daughter, Sandra Ann Morgan of Bremerton, WA; two grandchildren, four step-grandchildren, three sisters, Virginia McNaughton of Harlan; Marie Oliver of Winterset and Elaine (Mrs George) Bambenek of Fort Dodge; nieces and nephews and other relatives.

Funeral services were May 25, 1988 at Pauley Funeral Home with Pastor George Gibson of First United Methodist Church in Harlan, officiating. Burial was in Harlan cemetery with Frank Schleimer serving as an honorary casket bearer. Serving as casket bearers were Rex Evison, Dick O'Bryan, Grant McMartin, Kenneth Billeter, Glenn Rasmussen and Anker C. Rasmussen.