

In the News

---

Elk Horn man killed in one-vehicle accident Saturday

ELK HORN -- According to the Iowa State Patrol, a 52-year-old ElkHorn man, Ralph Estelle, died about 2 p.m. Saturday, July 10 in a one-vehicle accident one mile north of Elk Horn on Iowa Highway 173.

According to the Patrol, Estelle was driving a 2002 Hyundai minivan at a high speed when he lost control on a curve. The van flipped several times and Estelle was ejected. He was not wearing a seat belt according to the report.

Estelle, was pronounced dead at the scene, and was the only person in the vehicle.