

Alf Moody Eastergard, 67

June 5, 1949 - April 11, 2017

GREENVILLE, SC – Alf Moody Eastergard was born June 5, 1949 to Anker and Edith Eastergard in Harlan. Alf attended Harlan High School, earned his BS in accounting at Bob Jones University, MBA in business with emphasis in financial and managerial accounting, financial statement analysis and statistics from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln. From 1973-1981 he worked for Fox & Co., Xerox and FASB (Financial Accounting Standards Board). He was a C.P.A.

In 1982 he left the corporate world to share his passion in pursuit of excellence with accounting students on a college and post-graduate level. Over the next 34 years, Alf taught at Doane College, Crete, NE; University of Maine, Orono, ME; South Carolina State University, Orangeburg, SC; Bloomsburg University in Pennsylvania, and American University in Bulgaria, Blagoevrad, Bulgaria, and Claflin University, Orangeburg, SD.

Alf's wonderful sense of humor was a gift that all who met him will forever cherish. He had a continued quest for seeking the finer things in life: beauty in music, art, travel and food. Similarly his love for God was evident when as a young child, Alf recognized his need for a Savior and Shepherd. His sister, Kirsten, prayed with him when he desired to be born again. His appreciation for his Godly home permeated his life.

Alf's charge Saturday night to those gathered around his bed was "Serve the Lord ... find something you can do ... and start early because life is short and you will run out of time."

Alf went to be with his Savior Tuesday, April 11, 2017. Preceding him in death were his parents, and his sister, Kirsten Cundiff.

Survivors include siblings George and Mary Eastergard of Greenville, SC; Roger and Annette Wilson of Harlan; brother-in-law Bob Cundiff of Clearwater, FL; three nephews and three nieces; eight great-nephews and three great-nieces; 10 cousins in Denmark and one in Uganda.

A memorial service will be held Saturday, May 6 at 2 p.m. at Bethel Baptist Church in Harlan. A previous memorial service was held Thursday, April 13, 2017 at 7 p.m. at Morningside Baptist Church in Greenville, SC.
